This lodge is 500sqm in size

It consist of a main open plan entertainment building that includes a dining room for 8 people, an internal braai, fully equipped kitchen with upmarket appliances, a scullery with upmarket appliances, a lounge with plasma screen, dstv and dvd player with surround sound. A 360-degree fireplace divides the lounge and dining area and heats up the whole open plan entertainment area. There is also a guest bathroom for this open plan living area.

From the main building a wooden walkway leads you to the best feature – the thatched lapa. The lapa offers you a patio dining table for 8 people, a built-in braai, a bar, a Jacuzzi and a 6 metre high rim-flow swimming pool. There is also a guest bathroom for this lapa. The view and sunset is known to be the best within the DJ Syndico fractional ownership portfolio. There is also an open-air boma with a wood supply that will last you forever.

This lodge has 3 bedrooms with full en-suit bathrooms. The main bedroom is situated on the second floor of the main building, with a cosy fireplace and also has a loft bedroom with 2 single beds – ideal for a family with kids. There are also 2 separate sleeping chalets, one with a double bed and the other with 2 x single beds each. Each bedroom has its own private patio. Thus it can accommodate 8 people taking into consideration the loft bedroom in the main bedroom that is ideal for a family. The wooden quitted bathrooms in all the bedrooms are sure to impress. All the bedrooms are fully air-conditioned.

There is undercover thatched paring for 3 vehicles. From here the highly elevated wooden walkways leads you to the front entrance of the main building. The lodge is self catering.

Rules and Regulations

Stand 42 Kukama, Mabalingwe 12 Nature Reserve

(Print a copy of this document for you to take with for easy reference during your stay)

- Smoking inside the lodge is not allowed.
- Speed limits within the reserve should be adhered to at all times.
- As the property is situated in a nature reserve, only discreet music is allowed until 10pm. No music of any nature will be allowed thereafter. The same applies to voices. Voices in a remote area travel far and it is expected to keep noise levels to a minimum. It is after all the reason for visiting the bush - to admire the tranquillity. We draw your special attention to the lapa area which is located on the cliff's edge. This area for entertainment is very sensitive due to the openness. Sounds carry an extraordinary long way and all visitors should take extra caution.
- Home attendants may not wash personal clothes. Washing machine and tumble dryer are at your disposal.
- No pets are allowed on the Estate.
- A R1000 fee applies on late check-outs.
- A R1000 fee if the keys have not been returned to the Reception Desk of Mabalingwe.
- The swimming pool has a safety net. Once the safety net has been taken off the swimming pool it is the visitor's responsibility to manage the safety of children and all parties staying in the property. The owner, shareholders, managing agent, service provider, exchange and rental agent can not be held responsible for the safety of visitors.
- Because the jacuzzi and rim-flow swimming pool is situated on the cliff's edge, special care should be taken, especially with children. Adult supervision is required for children.
- When making a fire at the outside boma or the braai at the lapa, it is expected that the visitor take into consideration that the roof structure is thatched and can easily catch fire. Therefore the fire made may not exceed 1m in height and the fire must be put out before leaving the lodge or when going to bed. Special care should be taken when it is a windy evening.
- The internal gas fireplaces should be switched off before leaving the lodge or when going to bed.
- This is a privately owned lodge and the owners requested you to thoroughly enjoy all the benefits that this lodge has to offer, but also to treat the lodge with the necessary respect as if was your own.
